

R1: “Before You Read It” Commentary Guide

INDUCTIVE STUDY 101

1. OBSERVATION: Carefully read the verses we will cover each episode and take notes on the following details:

- Key words
- Phrases
- Themes
- Structure

2. INTERPRETATION: Consider the observations you made. Ask yourself questions such as:

- What does this mean?
- Why did the Holy Spirit choose this word or phrase?

3. APPLICATION: Revelation was written for you, the Church. In some quiet moments, reflect on how the insights you gain from this helps you navigate the world around you.

The Four Views

Preterist	Historist	Idealist	Futurist
Then Only: "Believe all the events in Revelation happened around 70 AD with the Roman Empire destroying Jerusalem."	Historical: "Believe all the events have been happening through history such as the Popes, Protestant Reformation, French Revolution, etc."	Allegorical: "All the events in Revelation are NOT connected to historical events and simply symbolic of the battle between good and evil."	Prophetical: "Events of the Olivet Discourse and Revelation 4-22 will happen in the future. This view believes the Book of Revelation is divided into three sections according to 1:19: "things you have seen (past), things that are (present) and things you will see (future)."

BIBLE PROPHECY Why Should We Study It?

• It's 25% Of The Bible

• Powerful Tool For Evangelism:

- Bible Prophecy was the main tool for spreading the gospel in Acts
- Acts 3:18-24: Peter's powerful sermon on the Messianic prophecies led 3,000 to be saved

• Mark 13:33-35: We are commanded by Jesus to "stay alert" and to "keep watch".

• It is LITERALLY are "blessed hope"! Titus 2:13

The Seven Kingdom Parables

Matthew 13

Matthew 13:10-11

And the disciples came and said to Him,
"Why do You speak to them in parables?"

Jesus answered them, "To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been granted."
